DSP Controller

Management Software for DSP202 Digital Signage Players

Management and Control Software for DSP202 Digital Signage Network Players

The TeleDelta DSP Controller Software is a lightweight software application designed to manage, control and monitor up to 1000x DSP202 Digital Signage Players across an IT network. The DSP Controller software is designed to centralise the control and management of both small and large digital signage networks, reducing workflow and digital signage content management.

All DSP202 Digital Signage Players are provided with the DSP Controller Software.

DSP Controller Software Features

- Centrally Manage up to 1000x DSP202 Digital Signage Player per Instance

- Monitor Health, Status and Operation of DSP202 Players

- View and Create Proof-of-Play and Hardware Logging

- Simple creation of Signage Template and Content (Single or Multiple Tiles)

- Media Preview and Checking

- Central Storage and repository for Digital Signage Media

- Dynamically update and Push new content to DSP202 Players

- Auto-Content and Playlist Updating to DSP202 Players

- Create "Groups" of players based on Geographical, Client or Content Basis

- Control DSP202 Players on a Grouping Policy

- Create Player Schedules - On/off, Content playback times

- Remotely set player brightness and volume for time-of-day playback

- Set Admin and User access permissions

- Remotely restart and configure DSP202 Players

For more information please contact your local distributor or sales@teledelta.com